EDUCATION SUNDAY - A message from The Marist Catholic Primary School. Today is Education Sunday, a day when we celebrate the important role all Catholic schools play in the spiritual education of our children. The Rt Rev Malcolm McMahon OP, the Bishop with special responsibility for Education writes that "Our Catholic schools and colleges are a great treasure. This treasure has been given to us and we must ensure that we hand it on to future generations." As a Catholic school we are commissioned to "make disciples of all people"; something we are unable to do alone. Instead, it is through the support of all our parents, our strong local parish and our committed staff that we can share the joy that knowing Christ brings. As a school we would like to thank you all for the support you bring to our school community. May we look to the future together, striving to make disciples of all those who walk through our doors at The Marist.

On Saturday 3rd March the Parish is holding a day of renewal & reflection called "Come Home to Me" led by Geoff & Gina Poulter, Directors of the Catholic Bible School. The day will be based on the Parable of the Prodigal Son and will contain times of reflection, DVD material and teaching - bound to get us thinking. It will be held in the hall at Our Lady's from 10am-4.15pm starting with mass in the church. Coffee & tea available but please bring your own lunch.
